

Privacy Policy – Rosie Accounting

This privacy policy explains how Rosie Accounting collects information about you when you use this website and how we process and store your personal information.

How we collect information

We collect information about you when you enquire about our services. This is confidential and not shared with any 3rd parties.

Website usage information is collected using cookies (see more under the cookies section)

Use of personal information

We process personal information collected via the website for the purposes of:

- Providing information about products and services
- Dealing with your enquiries and requests

Disclosures

We will not share your data with third parties unless we are obliged to disclose personal data by law, or the disclosure is necessary for purposes of national security, taxation and criminal investigation, or we have your consent.

Marketing

Your name and email address will be collected and added to our mailing list only if volunteered to us by you. Your email address is not passed on to third parties or shared with people outside of Rosie Accounting.

Cookies

A cookie is a small piece of information sent by a web server to a web browser, which enables the server to collect information from the browser. This helps us tailor the site to your needs as well as improve the website in the future. Find out more about cookies on www.allaboutcookies.org.

You can delete/control cookies via your browser settings by following these instructions, however if you choose to block cookies then your browsing experience may be affected. This includes:

- Live Chat functionality (if available)
- Track the pages you visit via Google Analytics / Tag Manager
- Allow you to share pages with social networks
- Allow you to share pages via Add This (if available)

Access to your information

You have the right to see what personal data we hold about you. If you would like this information, please email us at vikki@rosieaccounting.co.uk

We may charge a small admin fee of £10 to carry out this request.
